

DECISIONS OF WOCATI 2002 ASSEMBLY

- WOCATI needs a new mechanism for the future. WOCATI member associations need something more exciting. A new ground-breaking activity WOCATI's future lies on ground-breaking consultations, independently sponsored. WOCATI will survive from what it will offer. Hopkinson (ACATE)
- More information for the individual associations is needed, and a productive interaction between them is essential. Fosenca (ASIT)
- The model of tithing to WOCATI, i.e. 1% of the income of ATS and all the rest associations. Fosenca (ASIT):
- Other events in addition to a Congress. Banivanua (SPATS):
- WOCATI must be developed into a new entity with a new philosophy, beyond the existing associations. Nam Soon (PTCA)
- WOCATI, to make it more effective, perhaps with the participation of students in addition to executive committee meetings. Boothe (CATS),
- WOCATI to become a worldwide mechanism to introduce new theological and educational ideas, Vassiliadis (COCTS):
- Regular interaction of all theological institutions by undertaking the websites of those associations that do not have one. Vassiliadis (COCTS):
- Cautioned the assembly about WOCATI's capability. We must be pragmatic on what we can do together. MaCarthy (ATS)
- WOCATI conferences should focus more on "education". i.e. on the models of teaching. Lo (ATESEA):
- More sharing of experiences, programs etc. Zakaria (PERSETIA):
- A more universal outlook of WOCATI, and more representational (Catholic etc.).Larcher (W Europe):
- Too complicated constitution and By-Laws. A suggestion was made to make them simpler.
- The new Executive Committee was elected according to the WOCATI Constitution and the By-Laws, with the task of promoting and developing WOCATI for the next four years.
